

Seattle Children's Research Institute

Kawasaki Disease Family Forum

Saturday, June 13th, 2009 (1:00 – 5:00 PM)

Please join us for a chance to learn about the latest KD research. Have your questions answered by some of the leading physicians in the field, and meet with other parents and families who have been affected by Kawasaki Disease.

SPEAKERS

- Dr. Michael Portman: Professor, Attending Cardiologist and Director of Cardiology Research at Seattle Children's Hospital
Kawasaki Disease Research
- Dr. Anne Rowley: Attending Physician in Infectious Disease Division of Children's Memorial Hospital in Chicago, Professor of Pediatrics and Microbiology-Immunology
Search for the Cause of Kawasaki Disease
- Dr. Nagib Dahdah: Interventional Cardiologist, Sainte-Justine University Hospital Center, Montreal
Long Term Follow Up of Kawasaki Disease

Also featuring a presentation on a patient's perspective on living with Kawasaki Disease and a representative from the Kawasaki Disease Foundation. All speakers will be available for questions in an open forum following a meet and greet coffee break.

Saturday, June 13th, 2009
1:00 – 5:00 PM

Seattle Children's Research Institute
1900 9th Avenue
Seattle, WA 98101

For more information and to RSVP please contact:

Mary Beth Lee
(206) 884-5153

marybeth.lee@seattlechildrens.org